Lead

1960s England evokes visions of rock and roll, the Kings Road, Soho, fashion and the golden age of British motorcars.

Another name synonymous with great British motor cars is Connolly, famous for their exquisite leather interiors in brands such as Aston Martin, Bentley and Rolls-Royce. Now available in the Classic Driver Shop we have the current range of Connolly clothing for men and women which takes a contemporary look at classic British style. We headed to an English mansion with a Rolls-Royce Phantom V and a Connolly sports bag - packed with clothing, for an impromptu photo shoot.
